Discussion Items:

1. The committee discussed recent criminal activity in the town and received an update on the status of several investigations from Chief Bedell. TM Saunders stated that he will be meeting with KVFD officers in the coming weeks to see if any changes need to be made in the security set up before next year’s Fireman’s Carnival.
2. Chief Bedell reviewed KPD statistics for the month of July and the year to date.
3. The committee discussed the disposition of the Donald Vaughan case and directed TM Saunders to contact those citizens who had made reward pledges when the crimes were first committed to thank them for their offer of assistance and to release them from any further obligation, now that a conviction has been secured and a sentence imposed.
