Visitors:

Discussion items:

1. The committee elected Council Member Donahue chairman.
2. Chief Bedell reviewed KPD stats for July. There were no surprises. He also advised the committee that most members of his force would be taking annual required training and certification classes over the next few weeks.
3. The committee discussed the status of recent problems at the town playground and agreed that things are much better and there is no reason at this time to take any additional action. Continued vigilance by the department is requested.

FYI Only:

Recommendations to Council:

Action item(s):

Recommended for further study: Continue monitoring the playground with the intent of limiting behaviors that will generate complaints from citizens and businesses.
