

HOMETOWN HEROES

MEMORIAL DAY TO LABOR DAY 2022

presented by
THEIR FAMILIES and
THE TOWN OF KILMARNOCK

TO KILMARNOCK AND OUR
HOMETOWN HEROES BANNER PROGRAM

On behalf of the Kilmarnock Town Council and myself, we hope you will enjoy these tributes to the men and women who contributed so much with their service to our country. They are from our immediate area but also from across this great country of ours and now we proudly showcase them in Kilmarnock. While many have passed away, others are living here in our community.

This idea came to us from Laura and Daniel Stoddard who saw this concept in Canada and thought we could and should do something similar. Laura and Daniel, we thank you. To all the families who generously brought in their pictures and stories, please accept our gratitude and that of everyone who views these banners.

With warmest regards,

Mayor Mae P. Umphlett

Clearly identifiable—at least in daylight—by the red arm-bands fixed around their left forearm, trench runners bore messages from one area of a command unit to another, and qualified runners would be expected to closely familiarize themselves with areas of the front line into which a battalion would soon enter, generally so as to relieve the line's present occupants. Runners had to excel in map-reading and at reconnaissance. Speed and accuracy were essential in ensuring that the relieving forces were in place before daylight; in short, before the enemy force could catch troops in the open with artillery fire.
